

TTCC YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE INFORMATION – FAQ’S

Q: Do you need coaches?

A: YES! We almost always are in need of coaches!! Please consider helping out the program – get in touch with Dan at the TTCC if interested. We have great coaching resources and training!

Q: How & when will I know what team my child is on?

A: The TTCC will split up the teams based on skills assessment ratings. We will post rosters & schedules online & email out the information as well. If you haven't heard by Friday, 12/5/25 – feel free to call the TTCC office.

Q: How will I know when their first practice is?

A: Most teams 1st practice will take place on 12/6/25. Times and locations will vary per team – check TTCC website & keep an eye on your email for all the details!

Q: Will there be any additional practices or games during the week?

A: 3rd – 6th Grade teams will have additional practices & games during the week which varies per team and may include travel to surrounding towns. Grades 1 & 2 will have an optional skill night one night during the week @ BES (specific day TBD based on coach & facility availability). We hope to have all schedules distributed on 12/6/25.

Q: When do the players get their uniforms and do they need any other special equipment?

A: Uniform shirts should be distributed by 12/13/25. Players must bring their own shorts, sneakers & water bottles. No outside shoes should be worn on the court – sneakers must be brought with player to change into.

Q: How long is the season?

A: The season runs from 12/6/25 – February Vacation. Tournament / Travel teams may play into March.

Q: Is there anything for younger kids? What about middle or high schoolers?

A: Yes for all! Lil Hoops (ages 3-5) & Kindergarten basketball will start on Saturday, 1/10/26. More info on our website. We will also have Rec teams for middle & high school students – contact the TTCC for more info.

Q: Is there a fundraiser?

A: YES! We ask each player to sell a minimum of 5 cash calendars. More are always available at the TTCC office – high selling team wins a pizza party & high selling players earn specialty prizes! Please help keep the fees down, sell calendars! Your account will be charged $25 if you don't turn in your calendars so be sure to return them to TTCC sold or unsold (we prefer sold!)**

Q: How will we know if a game or practice is cancelled due to inclement weather?

A: On Saturday mornings, call 603-744-2713 and we'll have message updated by 8 am if basketball is cancelled. For weeknight practices or games, call your coach to check the status. Coaches are not required to call you & may not have time (remember they are volunteers!) – feel free to call them, as they will have the most updated information. You can always call the TTCC office as well! We will try to post everything on the website & Facebook as well.
